

Visual Planet: Information Management Awards Finalist

The Information Management Awards are the premier industry recognition of excellence and innovation in the management of business information and knowledge in an e-business environment. The success criteria are the delivery of significant and definable business benefits, as well as innovation and originality. The Awards are the showcase for e-business success stories. Visual Planet is a finalist in two of the categories.

Personalised Information Product Award

For the most exciting and innovative new product that enables the delivery of personalised information in a business or home environment. This may involve the use of intelligent software or agents that enable users to specify requirements. It may include information portals as the gateway to information and media repositories.

Product of the Year

This prestigious award is for the overall best information management product. It is the “Blue Riband” Product Award.
